BEARS ROAD GAMES ON TV

For the second straight season, all Bears' National Football League road games will be televised into Chicago from WBBM-TV (channel 2). The CBS telecasts are conducted by two all-time Bear greats, Red Grange, Illinois' All-American and an equally outstanding NFL player; and George Connor, five-time all-league lineman as well as a Notre Dame All American.

As in the past, ALL Bears' games, home and road, will be brought to radio listeners by station WGN with Jack Brickhouse doing the play-by-play and Irv Kupcinet the color.

Schedules in this year-book show LOCAL starting times so please consult the television and radio listings in your daily newspapers for starting times of the seven road games.

The Bears Coaches

GEORGE HALAS Founder and owner of the Bears and one of the organizers of the National Football League, George Halas is a native Chicagoan who prepped at Crane Tech high school from where he went to the University of Illinois. This is his 42nd season in pro football and his 34th as head coach of his Bears whom he led from 1920 through 1929; from 1933 until November 1942 when he entered the Navy; from 1946 through 1955; and from 1958 to the present.

Before all that, Halas starred in football, basketball and baseball at Illinois, graduating in 1918 and immediately going into the Navy. He was a member of Great Lakes' championship football team of 1918 that won the Rose Bowl game of Jan. 1, 1919. After leaving the Navy, he played outfield briefly for the New York Yankees before a leg injury shortened his baseball career. In 1920, he coached and played for the Decatur, Ill., Staleys football team that the following season moved to Chicago and became the Bears. Halas retired as an active player in 1929. In world war 2, he served as Welfare and Recreation Officer of the Pacific Fleet and was decorated with the Bronze Star by Admiral Nimitz.

PADDY DRISCOLL John L. "Paddy" Driscoll, an assistant since 1941, also was head coach in 1956 and 1957. He led the Bears to a Western division title in 1956. A graduate of Northwestern University and a native of Chicago, Paddy was a team mate of Halas at Great Lakes and, after playing briefly for the Chicago Cardinals, he joined the Bears as a player in 1925. He also played baseball with the Chicago Cubs one season. Driscoll was one of football's greatest practitioners of a lost art, drop-kicking, and holds NFL league records for most drop-kicked field goals in a game, four; and the longest drop-kicks, 50 yards twice.

DRISCOLL

CLARK SHAUGHNESSY Clark Shaughnessy, technical advisor since 1951, specializes on defense. This is his 46th season as a coach in a career dating from his graduation from the University of Minnesota which he attended after his high school days in his home town of St. Cloud, Minn. His record includes head coaching positions at Stanford, Tulane, Maryland, Pittsburgh, University of Chicago and Loyola of the South as well as with the Los Angeles Rams. He also held an advisory coaching position with the Washington Redskins. He is a noted exponent of the T-formation.

SHAUGHNESSY

LUKE JOHNSOS Luke Johnsos is a real veteran of the Bears, first as a player and then, in 1937 as a member of the coaching staff. This is his 33rd season overall since he graduated from Northwestern University. With the Bears, he holds the record of association with six world championship teams, either as player or coach. He also had a tryout with the Cincinnati Reds before joining the Bears in 1929. When Halas entered the Navy in 1942, Johnsos and Hunk Anderson became co-coaches, leading the Bears to the championship in 1943. Away from football, Luke is a partner in Johnsos-Coppock Printers, Skokie, Ill.

JOHNSOS

PHIL HANDLER Phil Handler, line coach, was one of the National Football League's finest linemen himself. He is a native Texan who graduated from Texas Christian, then began a six-season pro career in 1930 with the Cardinals. He was assistant coach of the team under, in order, Ernie Nevers, Milan Creighton and Jimmy Conzelman. Handler's scouting was held largely responsible for the success of the 1947-'48 Cardinals. In 1943 and again in 1945, he was their head coach and in 1949, was co-coach with Ray Parker. He joined the Bears staff in 1952. In the off-season, he is a salesman for the Douglas Lumber Company.

HANDLER

CHARLES "CHUCK" MATHER "Chuck" Mather is in his fourth season with the Bears. He came from the University of Kansas where he achieved a spectacular rebuilding program—from a 0-10 record in 1954, his first season there, to second place in the Big Eight Conference in 1957. He won Conference Coach of the Year Honors in 1957. Before going to Kansas, he developed six straight Ohio state championship teams at Massillon Washington high school, with a 57-3 record. He holds an M. A. degree from Kent State and is a noted football innovator who developed use of IBM in evaluation of players and closed circuit TV on sidelines.

MATHER

GEORGE ALLEN George Allen joined the Bears staff in October 1958 after having been end coach of the Los Angeles Rams in 1957. Previously, he had been a successful college head coach for nine years with a notable record for rebuilding teams and athletic programs. In two seasons, Allen-coached teams ranked in the top three nationally on pass defense. He is a native of Detroit who played varsity football at Marquette and Alma, Mich., college under the Navy world war 2 program and then went to Michigan where he was on the varsity wrestling team coached by Cliff Keen.

ALLEN

SID LUCKMAN Sid Luckman is in his sixth season as coach of the quarterbacks. He is one of the Bears' and the National Football League all-time greats who retired as a player in 1951 after having led the team to championships in 1940, '41, '43 and '46. He won the Most Valuable Player award in 1943 and was all-NFL quarterback from 1941 through 1947, inclusive. His 12-season career with the Bears followed a brilliant collegiate record at Columbia University. He is a native of Brooklyn but has been a Chicago resident since his playing days and is vice president of Cellucraft division of Rapid-America.

LUCKMAN

ED ROZY Ed Rozy has been trainer of the Bears since 1948 and is regarded as one of the nation's foremost in his profession. He is a protege of the famed Matt Bullock and came to the Bears from Marquette University where, in addition to his duties as trainer, he coached boxing, wrestling and fencing.

JOHN ADAMS Fullback 6'3" 235 Los Angeles State 3rd Season

Joined Bears: 1959, no. 4 selection. Born: Nov. 28, 1937, San Diego, Calif.

Adams, used mainly on kickoff and punt return units in his rookie season, saw considerable action toward the close of the 1960 schedule. He wound up with a 5-yard rushing average on 23 carries and contributed a spectacular 62-yard run against the Forty Niners at San Francisco. In 1958, his final varsity campaign at Los Angeles State, he averaged 6.4 yards rushing, with 718 on 114 tries caught 11 passes for 62 yards and returned nine kickoffs 326 yards, including one for 105. His 1960 record with the Bears:

	Yds.	Att.	Ave.	T.D.	Long		No.	Yds.	T.D.

DOUG ATKINS End 6'8" 255 Tennessee 7th Season (9th NFL)

Joined Bears: 1955, trade from Cleveland. Born: May 8, 1930, Humboldt, Tenn.

Atkins has been one of the NFL's most consistent defensive ends since he broke in with the Cleveland Browns in 1953 as their no. 1 draft choice. He had been an All-American tackle at Tennessee, where he enrolled originally on a basketball scholarship. Physically, he's one of the league's largest defensive ends and has been a towering terror to opponents since he came to the Bears on a trade in 1955. He was a member of the West team in the Pro Bowl four straight years (1958 through 1961) and in 1959, was voted the outstanding lineman in the contest. Chosen all-NFL defensive end last year.

CHARLES BIVINS Halfback 6'2" 212 Morris Brown 2nd Season

Joined Bears: 1960, no 7 selection. Born: Oct. 16, 1938, Atlanta, Ga.

Bivins was used principally on kickoff returns and covering punts in his rookie campaign and wound up twelfth in the NFL individual standings in the former. He was second to Johnny Morris on kickoff returns by the Bears. Bivins, rangy and heavy, has tremendous speed, as evidenced by his time of :09.4 for the 100-yard dash while competing in track at Morris Brown, Atlanta. His 1960 record with the Bears:

	Yds.	No.	Ave.	T.D.	Long
KICKOFF RETURNS	15	362	24.1	0	45

ED BROWN Quarterback 6'2" 208 San Francisco 8th Season

Joined Bears: 1954, no. 7 selection, '52. Born: Oct. 26, 1928, San Luis Obispo, Cal.

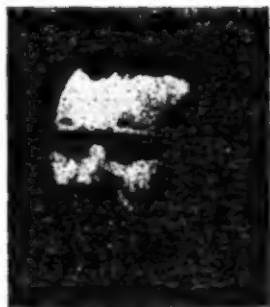

Brown led the Bears in punting for six straight seasons and in passing for five of the last six. His best single campaign was 1959 when he led in passes attempted, completed, yards and touchdowns (247-125-1,881-13). In 1956, he became the only Bear player in a long string of great quarterbacks to lead the NFL with a 57.1 completion mark and a 9.92 yard average gain. He was with the West squad in the Pro Bowl in 1956 and 1957. His 1960 record with the Bears:

PASSING (*—Indicates touchdown run)						RUSHING
Att.	Comp.	Pct.	Yds.	T.D.	Int.	Long	Yds.	No.	Ave.	T.D.
149	59	39.6	1,079	7	11	*-91	89	19	4.6	2

(Punted 56 times for a 39.8 yard average. Caught his own pass, after it had been deflected, for a loss of six yards.)

BILL BROWN      Fullback      5'11"      218      Illinois      1st Season

Joined Bears: 1961, no. 2 selection. Born: June 29, 1938, Mendota, Ill.

Brown, Illinois captain in 1960, contributed one of the great post-season game performances of that campaign. He scored three touchdowns and carried the ball 27 times for 129 yards, as the North defeated the South, 41-14, in the annual Shrine game at Miami. His total carries and yardage were game records. Brown first came into prominence as a junior when he scored the winning touchdown in Illinois' 20-14 upset of Army; gained 60 yards in 10 tries against Ohio State; and finally spearheaded his team's 9-6 victory over Wisconsin. In that contest, he gained 55 yards in seven carries and drove over for the winning touchdown in the final seconds of play. He also was an excellent corner linebacker and punted for a 40-plus yard average. Brown was a shot putter in track with a school outdoor record of 58 feet 8¼ inches. He also won the Big Ten indoor title last winter. Member of 1961 College All Stars.

J. C. CAROLINE      Halfback      6'1"      190      Illinois      6th Season

Joined Bears: 1956, no. 7 selection. Born January 17, 1933, Columbia, S. C.

Caroline, an all-time great at Illinois where in 1953 his 1,670 yards rushing led the nation and broke Red Grange's and the Big Ten single season records, has been a defensive stalwart with the Bears. Of present Bears, he is the pass interception leader with 16 for 249 yards return in five seasons. Last season, J. C. recovered a San Francisco fumble and ran it back 57 yards for the first touchdown in the Bears' 27-10 victory over the Forty Niners here. In 1956 and again in 1958, he was used some on offense but essentially, he has been a defensive back. Caroline was with the West squad in the 1957 Pro Bowl. His 1960 record with the Bears:

(*—Indicates touchdown)

	Yds.	No.	Ave.	T.D.	Long
PASS INTERCEPTIONS	3	31	10.3	0	31
RECOVERED FUMBLES	2	57	28.5	1	*—57

RICK CASARES      Fullback      6'2½"      225      Florida      7th Season

Joined Bears: 1955, no. 2 selection in 1954. Born: July 4, 1931, Tampa, Fla.

Casares, who has led the Bears in rushing for six straight seasons, holds more club records than any present member of the team. Last year, he increased his career rushing total to 4,414 yards on 1,076 carries to pass Bronko Nagurski (4,031) in the all-time Bears' standings. He has 39 touchdowns running; has scored four touchdowns in a game twice; gained most yards in one season (1,126 on 234 tries in 1956); most yards one game (190 on 17 in 1956); most touchdowns one season, 1956 (12 running, 2 pass receptions) gained 100 or more yards in a game twelve times, all club records. He was all-NFL fullback in 1956 and has played for the West team in the Pro Bowl four times. An All-American prep selection at Tampa high school, he went on to star for two seasons at the University of Florida before going into the Army in 1954. His 1960 record with the Bears:

	Yds.	No.	Ave.	T.D.	Long
(Also punted once for 60 yards)
RUSHING	556	160	3.54	5	35
PASS RECEIVING	64	8	8.00	0	21

ANGELO COIA End 6'2" 202 Southern Calif. 2nd Season

Joined Bears: 1960, no. 20 selection. Born: April 21, 1938, Philadelphia.

Coia, a real rookie find who was the Bears' 20th draft choice, broke in as starting left end in the third game of the 1960 schedule and remained a regular to the end of the season. His showing for the year is the more remarkable because at Southern California, he was a halfback and so had to adjust to an unfamiliar position with the Bears. He also was thirteen pounds under his normal playing weight due to food poisoning that hospitalized him while he was engaging in the Olympic sprint trials of 1960. As a junior at Southern California, Coia averaged 4.9 yards rushing. An injury idled him as a senior but in the Copper Bowl post-season game at Phoenix, Ariz., he scored two touchdowns for the winning National All Stars. His 1960 record with the Bears:

	Yds.	No.	Ave.	T.D.	Long
PASS RECEIVING	478	25	19.1	4	59
RUSHING	-4	3	—	0	25
PUNT RETURNS	2	2	1	0	2

ROGER DAVIS Guard 6'3" 235 Syracuse 2nd Season

Joined Bears: 1960, no. 1 selection. Born: June 23, 1938, Cleveland, Ohio

Davis suffered an injury in the College All Stars camp a year ago that got him away to a slow start with the Bears. But as the season progressed the 1959 Syracuse All-American and Lineman of the Year developed rapidly to justify his no. 1 draft status. He is fast and agile despite his size and a natural in adaptability since he played every offensive line position except center during his collegiate and prep career. With the Bears, he was regular offensive guard.

MIKE DITKA End 6'3" 230 Pittsburgh 1st Season

Joined Bears: 1961, no. 1 selection. Born: Oct. 18, 1939, Carnegie, Pa.

Ditka's versatility brought him All-America honors on a virtually unanimous basis last season. For Pittsburgh, he was a solid two-way performer—defensively, a great at end and middle linebacker; offensively, an outstanding pass catcher and blocker as well as one of the nation's leading collegiate punters with a three-year average of 40 yards per boot. He starred in the East-West game at San Francisco and then repeated that triumph a few days later when he was voted the outstanding lineman in the East's 14-7 Hula Bowl victory over the West in Honolulu. Mike caught the game-winning pass.

JIM DOOLEY End 6'4" 198 Miami (Fla.) University 8th Season

Joined Bears: 1952, no. 1 selection. Born: Feb. 8, 1930, Stoutsville, Mo.

Dooley, three times leader of the Bears in pass receptions, is regarded as one of the best down-and-out receivers in the NFL. After performing on defense in his rookie season of 1952, he was shifted to offensive end in 1953 and had his best single season record—53 pass receptions for 841 yards and four touchdowns. He also led his team in 1957 (35 for 517) and in 1959 (41 for 480). Jim has been a regular every year except 1955, when he was in the Air Force, and 1958, when a pre-season ankle injury idled him for the entire schedule. His 1960 record with the Bears:

	Yds.	No.	Ave.	T.D.	Long

GEORGE

STAN FANNING Tackle 6'6½" 265 Idaho 2nd Season

Joined Bears: 1960, no. 11 selection. Born: Nov. 22, 1937, Peoria, Ill.

Fanning is still a growing young man. He came to camp this year ½ inch taller and 13 pounds heavier than a year ago when he broke in as an offensive tackle and played all twelve games. Stan is a converted offensive center who also played defensive tackle and end at Idaho. His size, strength and aggressiveness made him an effective, steadily improving performer as a rookie.

JOHN FARRINGTON End 6'3" 217 Prairie View, Tex. 2nd Season

Joined Bears: 1960, no. 16 selection. Born: Jan. 1, 1936, Houston.

Farrington saw service mainly on special units in his rookie season. He is a rangy, exceptionally speedy end who was a big factor in the success of Prairie View, Tex., College. He was an outstanding pass receiver during his team's undefeated 1958 campaign and also starred in its Orange Blossom Bowl victory in 1959.

JOE FORTUNATO Linebacker 6'1" 225 Mississippi State 7th Season

Joined Bears: 1955, no. 8 selection 1953. Born: March 28, 1931, Mingo Junction, O.

Fortunato returns for his seventh season as left linebacker on the Bears' stout, muscular trio that also includes Bill George and Larry Morris. Joe, whose home now is Natchez, Miss., is a vicious tackler and alert defensive man whose six-year record shows twelve recovered enemy fumbles and five interceptions, including one for a 27-yard touchdown return. At Mississippi State, he was an offensive fullback with a 6.09 average and 779 yards rushing as a senior. Drafted by the Bears in 1953, he went into the Army at Fort Benning Ga., for two years. Pro Bowl, 1959.

WILLIE GALIMORE Halfback 6'1" 187 Fla. A. & M. 5th Season

Joined Bears: 1957, no. 5 selection in 1956. Born: March 30, 1935, St. Augustine, Fla.

Galimore returned last season to some of the form that made him a sensation in his first two seasons with the Bears when he had 1,157 yards for a 4.5 average and scored 13 touchdowns. In 1960, he averaged close to five yards a carry with 368 on 74, definitely superior to his 1959 slump when he averaged 3.4 with 199 on 58 tries. Willie is one of three Bears sharing the club record of four touchdowns in one game. He also scored four times and was voted winner of the Eisenhower Most Valuable Player trophy in the 1958 Armed Forces Benefit game in which the Bears defeated Cleveland, 42-31. In the opening game of the regular NFL schedule that year, he returned a kickoff 99 yards against the Baltimore Colts. His 1960 record with the Bears:

	Yds.	No.	Ave.	T.D.	Long
RUSHING	368	74	4.97	1	54
PASS RECEIVING	35	3	11.7	0	33

BILL GEORGE Linebacker 6'2½" 235 Wake Forest 10th Season

Joined Bears: 1952, no. 4 selection in 1951. Born: Oct. 27, 1930, Waynesburg, Pa.

George, all-NFL linebacker for six straight years beginning in 1955, has been defensive captain of the Bears since 1956. He is recognized as one of the shrewdest play diagnosticians in the league with the physical attributes to implement his defensive instincts. George was an All-American tackle, twice All-Southern Conference choice and a National A.A.U. and conference wrestling champion at Wake Forest. He has played with the West team in seven straight Pro Bowl games, 1955 through 1961.

HARLON HILL End 6'3" 200 Florence, Ala., Teachers 8th Season

Joined Bears: 1954, no. 15 selection. Born: May 4, 1932, Florence, Ala.

Among revisions of the Bears' lineup during the training campaign was the switch of Hill, holder of a host of club pass receiving marks, to a defensive halfback. Last season, he caught only five passes for 98 yards, a sharp reduction from a seasonal average computed on his seven year total of 223 for 4,565 yards and 40 touchdowns. His pass receptions and yardage are Bears' records. He also shares the club's individual record of four touchdowns in one game. In 1954, he was voted NFL Rookie of the Year and from that season through 1956, he was an all league offensive end choice. Hill played in the Pro Bowl from 1955 through 1957. In 1958, a severe ankle injury threatened to end his career, but he came back with a fine 1959 campaign.

STAN JONES Guard 6'1" 250 Maryland 8th Season

Joined Bears: 1954, no. 5 selection in 1953. Born: Nov. 24, 1931, Altoona, Pa.

Jones last season was chosen all-NFL offensive guard for the fourth time in his career. He also had won the honor in 1955, 1956 and 1959 and he has played in the Pro Bowl six straight times, from 1956 through 1961. All of the foregoing simply carried into the major league of football all of the talent that Jones had displayed at Maryland where, in 1953, he was a unanimous All-American as well as Lineman of the Year. He won the starting offensive tackle position in his rookie campaign of 1954 and the following season, was shifted to guard. He is one of the real "muscle-men" of the league, a reflection of his prowess at Maryland where he was an intercollegiate weight lifting champion.

Karras is a native of Gary and member of a famous football family. His brother, Alex, is a Detroit Lions' defensive lineman, and another brother, Lou, played at Purdue. He enlisted in the Marine Corps following graduation from Indiana and in 1957, he was an all-Service selection. In 1958, he went to the Bears' camp but was sold to the Steelers before the schedule began. After two seasons with the Steelers, Karras was traded back to the Bears for a draft choice.

BOB KILCULLEN    Tackle    6'3"    245    Texas Tech    3rd Season

Joined Bears: 1958, no. 8 selection in '57. Born: Aug. 1, 1936, St. Louis.

Kilcullen returned to the Bears last season after two years in the Army following his NFL debut campaign of 1958. As a rookie, he was an offensive lineman but, put on the active list late last season, he played primarily on defense. Bob is an accomplished artist who attended the Chicago Art Institute during the last off-season.

KEN KIRK    Center    6'2"    230    Mississippi    2nd Season

Joined Bears: 1960, no. 9 selection. Born: Feb. 26, 1938, Tupelo, Miss.

Kirk, used principally on defense as a rookie, is getting a shot at offensive center this year, with the shift of John Mellekas to tackle. He was used at center on punts and place kicks frequently in 1960, however. Ken was defensive captain of the 1959 Mississippi eleven ranked second nationally. The team lost only to Louisiana State, 7-3, but reversed that decision with a 21-0 Sugar Bowl victory over the previous conquerors. Kirk also played with Ole Miss post-season winners in his two earlier campaigns—a 36-7 win over Texas in the Sugar Bowl when he was a sophomore and a 7-3 victory over Florida in the Gator Bowl as a junior. He started his collegiate career as a fullback but was moved to center in the last game of his sophomore season.

ROGER LECLERC    Tackle    6'3"    235    Trinity (Conn.)    2nd Season

Joined Bears: 1960, no. 15 selection in 1959. Born: Oct. 1, 1936, Springfield, Mass.

Leclerc again is functioning with the defensive unit, as a tackle or linebacker. He also is a place kicker and his all-around talents as center at Trinity of Hartford, Conn. earned him Little All-America, All-East, All-New England honors as well as the Maxwell Memorial Award. In 1959, he probably was the highest scoring center in the nation with two touchdowns on run-backs of intercepted passes and 15 place kick conversions for 27 points. He was drafted as a "future" in 1959.

HERMAN LEE Tackle 6'3" 247 Fla. A. & M. 3rd Season (4th NFL)

Joined Bears: 1958, no. 23 selection in 1954. Born: July 1, 1933, Phenix City, Ala.

Lee has developed into one of the best offensive tackles and hardest blockers in the NFL. Fine speed for so large a man and great physical strength are among his many assets. He was originally drafted no. 23 in 1954, after starring at Florida A. & M. He went into the Army for a two-year tour of duty with the military police that included nine months in Korea. After leaving the Army, Lee got a tryout with the Bears in 1956 and another in 1957. After his second unsuccessful effort, he was traded to the Pittsburgh Steelers with whom he was a regular until he was traded back to the Bears in 1958. Last season, Lee broke into the pass receiving statistics when he picked off a deflected Bears' pass and ran for a gain of 16 yards against the Green Bay Packers.

EARL LEGGETT Tackle 6'3" 250 La. State 4th Season

Joined Bears: 1957, no. 1 selection. Born: Jacksonville, Fla., March 5, 1934.

Leggett's steady improvement and adaptability have more than justified his no. 1 draft status in 1957, following two years at Louisiana State and two at Hines (Miss.) Junior College. The past two seasons, he has been equally effective at defensive tackle and end. Last year, he contributed a key pass interception in the opener at Green Bay when, with the score tied 14-14, he snared a Packer pass and returned it 11 yards. That set up the field goal that gave the Bears a 17-14 victory.

PETE MANNING Halfback 6'3" 208 Wake Forest 2nd Season

Joined Bears: 1960, no. 8 selection. Born: Aug. 11, 1937, Hudson, Mass.

Manning came to the Bears as an offensive end who, in three seasons at Wake Forest, had caught 48 passes for 693 yards and three touchdowns and returned five kickoffs 62 yards. His conversion into a defensive back began in camp but he didn't break in regularly until late in 1960. Then, playing right safety, Pete was a key man in the 17-14 victory over Dallas. He recovered two fumbled punts, the first setting up a touchdown and the second the field goal that was the Bears' margin.

JOHN MELLEKAS Tackle 6'3" 255 Arizona 5th Season

Joined Bears: 1956, no. 4 selection. Born: June 14, 1933, Newport, R. I.

Mellekas, Bears' starting center since 1959, will return this season to his original position, tackle. He had been All-Border Conference tackle at Arizona when he was drafted no. 4 in 1956. Joining the Bears that fall, he saw quite a bit of action at tackle but after the season, he went into the Army and played service football at Fort Dix, N. J. He won second team All-Army and All-Service honors. Rejoining the Bears in 1958, he was shifted to center when Larry Strickland was injured and the following year, he took over the spot regularly.

LARRY MORRIS Linebacker 6'2" 230 Ga. Tech. 3rd Season (5th NFL)

Joined Bears: 1959, trade with Washington. Born: Dec. 10, 1933, Decatur, Ga.

The Bears traded their no. 2 draft choice to Washington for Morris, just before the start of the 1959 schedule. He was the Los Angeles Rams' no. 1 draft choice in 1955, after winning All-American center honors at Georgia Tech, and played regularly until after the close of the 1958 schedule when he was traded to Washington for Gene Brito. The deal that then brought him to the Bears proved out from Morris' first appearance in a Chicago suit. He has been an aggressive linebacker who, among other exploits in his first season with the Bears, recovered a fumble and ran it back 19 yards for a touchdown against his former Ram team mates.

JOHNNY MORRIS Halfback 5'10" 180 UC at S. Barbara 4th Season

Joined Bears: 1958, no. 12 selection. Born: Sept. 26, 1935, Long Beach, Cal.

Morris' name pops up in four separate categories with the Bears—rushing, pass receiving, kickoff returns and punt returns. He holds the club career record for kickoff returns (52 for 1,228 yards), leads present Bears in punt returns and is third in rushing and fourth in pass receiving. Breakaway speed and aggressiveness are his main assets. At the University of California at Santa Barbara, Morris also starred in track and during his competitive days equalled the world's 50-yard dash record of :05.2. He has contributed many long runs in his three years with the Bears, including a 78-yard punt return for a touchdown against Los Angeles in 1959 whose distance was second only to "Scooter" McLean's 89-yarder in Bears' club records. Last year, he got away for a 61-yard touchdown run and also scored on a 66-yard pass play. Johnny also was a member of the West squad in the Pro Bowl for first time. His 1960 record with the Bears:

(*—Indicates touchdown)

	Yds.	No.	Ave.	T.D.	Long
RUSHING	417	73	5.71	3	*—61
PASS RECEIVING	224	20	11.2	3	*—66

DICK NORMAN Quarterback 6'3" 209 Stanford 1st Season

Joined Bears: 1961, no. 5 selection in 1960. Born: Sept. 14, 1938, Downey, Cal.

Norman was drafted as a "future," no. 5 choice in 1960. Consensus is, if he had been available for this year's draft, he would have been plucked off even earlier. He was one of the nation's greatest collegiate passers at Stanford, even in 1960 when, despite the fact his team lost all ten of its games, he rated ninth nationally with 84 completions for 924 yards in 180 attempts. He was voted outstanding player as he completed 20 of 33 passes for 311 yards and three touchdowns for the North in the Senior Bowl game at Mobile, Ala. Before that, he pitched two touchdown passes to lead the Major College All Stars to victory over the Small College Stars in the Copper Bowl at Tucson. His greatest collegiate campaign was 1959 when he averaged .578 on 152 completions in 263 attempts for 1,963 yards. In Stanford's traditional game with California, he completed 34 of 39 passes for an astronomical .872 average and 401 yards gain, all intercollegiate single game marks.

RICHIE PETITBON    Halfback    6'3"    205    Tulane    3rd Season

Joined Bears: 1959, no. 2 selection. Born: April 18, 1938, New Orleans.

Petitbon's two NFL campaigns have developed him into one of the better defensive backs. At Tulane, he was a brilliant offensive quarterback but, converted into a defensive halfback with the Bears, he made good immediately. In fact, early in the 1959 schedule, he intercepted a pass and ran it back 33 yards for a touchdown that gave the Bears a lead they never relinquished during the course of a 26-21 victory over the Baltimore Colts. His brief NFL career record shows five pass interceptions for 52 yards return; 13 punt returns for 94 yards; four kickoff returns for 68.

MIKE PYLE    Center    6'3"    245    Yale    1st Season

Joined Bears 1961, no. 7 selection. Born: July 18, 1939, Keokuk, Ia.

Pyle was captain last season of Yale's first undefeated, untied football team in 37 years. As added distinction, he was an all-Ivy League selection for the second straight season but at a different position—in 1959, he was all-Ivy center; last year, he was selected at tackle, a position to which he was shifted by Coach Jordan Olivar. An all-state Illinois high school center at New Trier, he broke in as a Yale regular as a sophomore and improved steadily for the rest of his collegiate career. He was linebacker on defense but with the Bears, he will concentrate on center. Mike, whose older brother, Palmer, starred at Michigan State and now is with the Baltimore Colts, also lettered in track at Yale. He tied for first in the discus in the IC-4A meet in May with a throw of 158 feet, 10 inches. Member of 1961 College All Stars.

BILL WADE    Quarterback    6'2"    203    Vanderbilt    1st Season (8th NFL)

Joined Bears: 1961, trade with Los Angeles. Born: Oct. 3, 1930, Nashville, Tenn.

Wade was obtained in a three-way trade in which the Bears sent Erich Barnes and Zeke Bratkowski to the Rams, who, in turn, dealt the former to New York for Lindon Crow. Bill last season was fourth among the NFL quarterbacks with a 58.2 per cent completion mark. He was the Rams' bonus draft choice in 1952 but did not join them until 1954 after tour of Navy duty. He understudied and alternated with Norm Van Brocklin until 1958 when he took over as regular. In 1956, incidentally, though he shared playing time, he came within 63 yards of breaking Sammy Baugh's record for total yards passing in one season. Wade completed 181 out of 341, 18 for touchdowns, for 2,875 yards. He also is a strong runner who, among other exploits along the ground last year, got away for a 66-yard touchdown scamper against the Baltimore Colts. His 1960 record with Los Angeles:

*—Indicates touchdown run.

BOB WETOSKA    Guard    6'3"    240    Notre Dame    2nd Season

Joined Bears: 1960, free agent. Born: Aug. 22, 1937, Minneapolis.

Wetoska alternated at offensive tackle last season with another rookie, Stan Fanning, and did well at an unfamiliar position. At Notre Dame, where he won three letters, he was an end and was drafted no. 5 by the Washington Redskins in 1959. However he was not retained into the regular schedule. Wetoska played in the 1959 College All Star game after having starred in two post-season bowl games, the North South and the Senior.

DAVE WHITSELL    Halfback    6'1"    190    Indiana    1st Season (4th NFL)

Joined Bears: 1961, trade from New York. Born: June 14, 1936, Shelby, Mich.

Whitsell and a draft choice came to the Bears from the Giants on an off-season trade for John Aveni. He played three seasons with the Detroit Lions, whom he joined in 1958, and then was one of three selected by the new Minnesota Vikings. The latter team traded him to the Giants in the deal for Mel Triplett and Bob Schnelker. Whitsell played with various Lions' special units, but essentially was a defensive back. An all-around high school athletic star at Shelby, Mich., he played regularly at Indiana. As a prep, he ran a :09.8 hundred; put the shot 55 feet 6 inches and, in basketball, once scored 45 points in a single game.

FRED WILLIAMS    Tackle    6'4"    248    Arkansas    10th Season

Joined Bears: 1952, no. 5 selection. Born: Feb. 8, 1930, Little Rock, Ark.

Williams is one of the NFL's most versatile defensive linemen. Last season, for example, emergencies that arose from injuries resulted in his being called upon to function at various times on the left and the right side of the defensive line as well as at two of the three linebacker spots. His regular job is defensive left tackle and as such, he was selected to play in the Pro Bowl games of 1953, 1954, 1959 and 1960. In 1957, he was voted outstanding player of the Bears' 29-3 victory over Cleveland in the Armed Forces Benefit game and received the Eisenhower Trophy. Off the field, his drawling wit and Ozarkian expressions have made him one of the league's most entertaining speakers. He was All-Southwest Conference in football at Arkansas as well as an intercollegiate wrestling and boxing champion.

MAURY YOUNG    End    6'6"    235    Syracuse    2nd Season

Joined Bears 1960, no. 9 selection in 1959. Born: Oct. 18, 1936, Eagle Bay, N. Y.

Young returns for his second NFL campaign, completely sound again after having missed the last three games of his rookie season because of a slight shoulder dislocation. Actually, he probably could have played in one or two of those contests, but it was decided the risk of aggravating the injury would be too great. Young stepped in at defensive end, teaming with Doug Atkins on the other side to give the Bears excellent flanker protection. Most distinctive qualities are his size, speed and competitive desire. Young, a star two-way end and tackle on Syracuse's national championship team of 1959, had been drafted as a "future." At Syracuse, he played in three post-season bowl games—the Cotton Bowl as a sophomore and again as a senior and the Orange Bowl as a junior.

Bears' Marching Song

Bear Down, Chicago Bears, Make every play clear the way to victory;
 Bear Down, Chicago Bears, Put up a fight with a might so fearlessly.
 We'll never forget the way you thrilled the nation with your T-formation.
 Bear Down, Chicago Bears, and let them know why you're wearing the crown.
 You're the pride and joy of Illinois, Chicago Bears, Bear Down

EISENHOWER TROPHY

In 1953, President Dwight D. Eisenhower authorized presentation of a trophy to the outstanding player of the Armed Forces game, selected by sports writers attending. Player's name is inscribed on trophy and he receives a replica of the award. The selections:

1961—John Farrington, E, Bears
 1960—(Tie) Rick Casares, QB;
           Zeke Bratkowski, QB, Bears
 1959—Jim Dooley, HB, Bears
 1958—Willie Galimore, HB, Bears
 1957—Fred Williams, T, Bears
 1956—Darrell Brewster, E, Browns
 1955—Ed Brown, QB, Bears
 1954—Frank Gifford, HB, Giants
 1953—Harry Jagade, FB, Browns

For the seventh straight year, the four Chicago metropolitan daily newspapers sponsor the sixteenth annual Armed Forces Benefit game, whose latest renewal, Friday night, Sept. 8 at Soldier Field, matched the Bears against the Pittsburgh Steelers.

As members of the Chicago Newspaper Publishers Association, Chicago's American, the Daily News, the Sun-Times and the Tribune have contributed enthusiastic support to the success of a contest first held in 1946.

That inaugural came about at a meeting in Washington attended by Dwight D. Eisenhower, then Army Chief of Staff; Admiral Chester K. Nimitz, representing the Navy; General Ira Eaker, acting for the head of the Air Force, General Carl Spaatz; Ralph Cannon, then sports editor of the Chicago Herald-American; and George Halas.

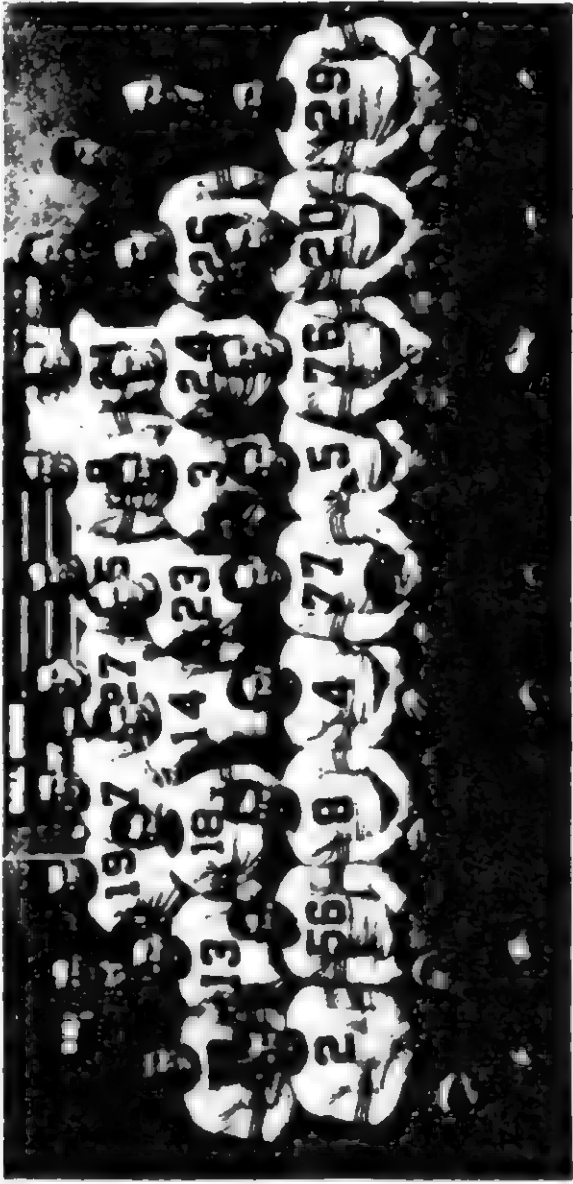

The Herald-American sponsored the game in 1946 and 1947, followed by the Sun-Times from 1949 through 1954. In 1955, the Chicago Newspaper Publishers Association took over sponsorship and the worthy enterprise became even more successful than it had been previously.

Sharing in the proceeds are Army Emergency Relief, the Navy Relief Society and the Air Force Aid Society. Those official relief agencies provide financial assistance to widows and orphans of servicemen . . . care and assistance to wounded servicemen and their families . . . hospital and medical aid to needy families and dependents of servicemen . . . prenatal and obstetrical care to needy servicemen's families . . . and cash grants to service personnel and dependents in emergencies.

Fifteen previous Armed Forces games have netted $629,242.15.
